Educating leaders for

BUSINESS & SOCIETY

Our mission of educating leaders for business and society makes us the place for people who care about making a real difference in the world.

We've always weighed the "business" and "society" in our mission equally. From our founding, we have taught students to understand the vital connections between public and private efforts and between the goals of growing your business and making an impact.

All of the major challenges we face—climate change, economic inequality, racial injustice, political turmoil—require leaders who can engage with the world of business, governments, and the social sector, and who can identify and implement the best ideas and solutions wherever they may arise.

Program Structure

Join a group of emerging leaders from all corners of the globe for intensive study, exchange, and professional development.

The Master of Advanced Management (MAM) is a nine-month degree program for exceptional MBAs from top business schools around the world who aspire to become global leaders for business and society. As part of the broader Yale community, MAM students have the opportunity to select from an array of electives and extracurricular activities across Yale SOM and the rest of the university.

The Yale campus serves as an intellectual crossroads, convening renowned leaders, visiting speakers, and those with distinctively global perspectives to advance understanding around the unique opportunities and challenges of today's world.

MAM curriculum

The MAM program draws on the business expertise of the Yale School of Management and the reach of Yale University in addressing the big questions facing business and society.

Across all sectors, today's global leaders must have a firm grasp on major global risks and trends, thrive in cross-cultural environments, and know how to make meaningful connections across knowledge domains. The MAM curriculum is designed to prepare students to nimbly meet these challenges of global leadership.

MAM students participate in a set of required courses oriented around major global risks and trends and the role of business leaders in today's society. They also curate their own intellectual journey by choosing electives from throughout Yale University.

"The MAM program served as the perfect springboard for me to excel in the payments sector. The elective model of the MAM program made it possible for me to take classes in digital strategy, payments, and product development, all of which challenged and pushed me to develop an analytical mindset required of a specialist in this industry both in the short and long-term. And working with people from different cultural backgrounds helped me strengthen my leadership and communication skills."

Careers

MAM graduates have secured employment with leading organizations around the world, including Abbott, Accenture, Amazon, Apple, Bain & Co., Bank of America, BCG, Capital One, CBRE, Citi, Credit Suisse, Emerson, Facebook, GE, GM, Google, IBM, the International Finance Corporation, Johnson & Johnson, KPMG, McKinsey & Company, Microsoft, Moelis & Company, Novartis, PWC, Rakuten, Shell Oil, Siemens, Tencent, and the United Nations.

Our global approach

Yale is a global campus, with students and faculty coming from all parts of the world. Yale SOM is a founding member of the Global Network for Advanced Management, which connects our students to their counter-parts at 30+ top business schools on six continents.
