I. Chinese Government Scholarship (CGS)

A. Bilateral Program (Type A)

1. Application receiving agencies: Dispatching Department of your home country
  - The dispatching department is usually the Chinese embassy or consulates in your country, the Ministry of Education or authorities with the same functions in your country, or other relative authorities or organizations, etc.
2. Application time: usually from early January to early April
  - For specific application time, please consult the dispatching department.
3. Application Procedures

Flow Chart – International Students Applying for CGS Type A

(Specific procedures are subject to requirements given by the dispatching departments and the CSC)

- a) The applicant shall consult the dispatching department about application procedures and file an application with the dispatching department;
- b) The dispatching department will review the application and submit the recommended applicants' information and documents to the Chinese Scholarship Council (hereinafter referred to as CSC);

- c) The CSC will organize the university to examine the applicant. The university will review the application documents, interview the applicants, and submit the pre-admission list back to the CSC;
- d) The CSC will examine the pre-admitted applicants' eligibility and finalize the short-list candidates.

➤ For more information, please visit the website of the CSC: www.campuschina.org

4. Matters Needing Attention

- a) The applicant can consult the dispatching departments and get the Operation Instructions of the Chinese Government Scholarship Information System as well as the application receiving agency number;
- b) The CSC will not accept individual applications;
- c) The applicant must follow the instructions of Renmin University of China (hereinafter referred to as RUC) and go through all the admission procedures as required, including registering on our website, taking the written exam or an interview, etc. Specific requirements and timetable will be informed by the International Students Office (hereinafter referred to as ISO) and the School;
- d) Please check your email regularly after submitting the application to ensure the smooth progress of admission; after receiving the email from RUC, please check your email on a daily basis in case of missing any notices, which could affect your admission;
- e) CGS Type A applicants who intend to apply for the degree programs (including undergraduate program, master degree program and Ph.D. program) taught in Chinese shall submit the language test report. The following conditions apply.
  - i. The applicant should submit an HSK report with Level 4 at least.

- ii. If the applicant submits an HSK Level 4 or 5 report, the school will test the applicant's Chinese language proficiency during the interview. If the applicant passes the test, the one-year Chinese language preparatory course (hereinafter referred to as CLPC) will be required (under the support of CSC); otherwise, the applicant will not be admitted. Before the end of the CLPC, the student must submit an HSK Level 6 report to the university to start the major study. If the student fails to reach Level 6, the university will evaluate their Chinese proficiency and overall academic performance when taking the CLPC, and decide whether to apply to CSC for another year of CLPC. If the student shows a bad academic record during the first year of CLPC or fails to obtain an HSK Level 6 report after two years of CLPC, the university will report the CSC and apply for cancelling the major study qualification of this student.
- iii. If the applicant submits an HSK Level 6 report with the total score no lower than 180 points and sub-category scores no lower than 60 points, the CLPC will not be required.
- f) Renmin University of China reserves the right to require the applicant to submit relevant supporting documents.

B. Chinese University Program (Type B)

1. Application receiving agency: Renmin University of China (No. 10002)
2. Application time: November 15, 2021 to April 30, 2022
3. Application Procedures
  - a) The applicant shall apply to RUC and the CSC at the same time;
  - b) RUC will view the applicant as self-supported and start the admission procedures, including reviewing the application documents and examining the applicants;

- c) The university will carry out a comprehensive evaluation of the applicants based on the documents they provided, their examination performance and overall capabilities, and submit the scholarship recommendation list to the CSC;
- d) The CSC will review and finalize the admission list;
- e) The university will notify the admission result to the students and send out their admission documents.

4. Requirements

There are three programs that our university offer through CSC scholarship, including the University Postgraduate Program, the Silk Road Scholarship Program and the Sino-African Friendship Scholarship Program. In addition to the basic admission requirements, applicants shall fulfill the requirements listed below:
